Dear NAMT Members,

Like our friends at NAMT, we at the New York Musical Theatre Festival (NYMF) are dedicated to securing the future of musical theater. Each fall, NYMF presents developmental productions of over 30 new musicals, plus more than 20 additional special events, concerts, and readings celebrating the next generation of musical theatre and musical theatre artists. Our 2009 festival will run September 28 through October 18 in midtown Manhattan, with its final week of performances coinciding with NAMT's fall conference.

We're pleased to offer NAMT members an exclusive discount on NYMF 2009 memberships, which combine flexible ticket packages and an array of additional benefits. Membership tickets can be used at any of our more than 250 festival performances, but I wanted to highlight several shows which may be of interest to you with performance times just before the NAMT conference or on evenings following conference events:

Academy by John Mercurio

Thursday, Oct. 15 at 4:30pm

Cross That River by Allan Harris and Andrew Carl Wilk

Friday, Oct. 16 at 8pm

Deep Cover by Michael Wolk

Thursday, Oct. 15 at 8:30pm; Friday, Oct. 16 at 7:30pm

F#@king Up Everything by David Eric Davis and Sam Forman

Friday, Oct. 16 at 8pm

The Last Smoker In America by Bill Russell and Peter Melnick

Wednesday, Oct. 14 at 8pm; Friday, Oct. 16 at 5pm; Saturday, Oct. 17 at 8pm

Lighter by Monica Bauer

Friday, Oct. 16 at 4:30pm; Saturday, Oct. 17 at 8pm

Punk Princess by Yasmine Lever, Stew and Heidi Rodewald (Staged Reading)

Wednesday, Oct. 14 at 4pm and 8pm

Seeing Stars by Shelley McPherson, Don Breithaupt and Jeff Breithaupt

Friday, Oct. 16 at 9pm

Street Lights by Joe Drymala

Friday, Oct. 16 at 7pm

The Toymaker by Bryan Putnam

Saturday, Oct. 17 at 9pm

For the full NYMF schedule, including casting details, show descriptions, and song clips, please visit NYMF.org. Details about the special membership offer follow. We'll be happy to assist you in seeing the shows you'd like to attend around your conference schedule, and hope you can join us while you're in town next month!

Sincerely,

Isaac Robert Hurwitz
